

18th Annual Isle of Wight Hedgelaying Competition

Saturday 27 February 2010

Conditions of Entry

1. Any person may apply to enter the Open category.
2. Entrants to the Novice category must not have won any hedgelaying cup or prize more than twice.
3. The Team category may consist of up to four persons, of whom no more than one can be ineligible for the Novice category. Teams only may receive advice and guidance from a tutor during the competition but the tutor must not undertake any of the actual work.
4. The Hand Tools prize is open to any individual or team from any category. To be eligible the individual or team must lay their stretch without any use of powered tools.
5. No person under 16 years of age on the day of the competition may enter.
6. The competition organisers reserve the right not to accept any application for entry to the competition.
7. Competitors must be on site to register by 0930, and ready to cut at 1000. Late entrants may be accepted at the Judges' discretion.
8. Pitches will only be allocated by drawing of lots or under the direction of the Judges.
9. Any instruction given to a competitor by the Judges before or during the competition must be complied with.
10. Use of any normal tool is permitted, including chainsaws.
11. Spectators could be close to the competition area at all times. Competitors must make all reasonable efforts to work safely and protect themselves, other competitors and members of the public. In particular, competitors must wear appropriate safety clothing (when using or alongside a chainsaw this must include chainsaw trousers/chaps; chainsaw boots; safety helmet, visor and ear protectors; pair of chainsaw gloves) and store tools and fuel safely.
12. Stakes and heathers will be provided by the organisers, and these must be the only stakes and heathers used.
13. No complaints about unfair behaviour, site or materials will be considered unless they are brought to the attention of the Judges at the earliest practical opportunity.
14. Competitors and their work may be photographed and/or filmed by organisers, the public and the media. Competitors agree that any recording of them and their work on the competition day may be used freely.
15. The Judges' decision will be announced after 1500. This decision will be final and not negotiable. The prizes will be allocated at the Judges' discretion.
16. Prizes will only be awarded if, in the opinion of the Judges, the standard of work is adequate. In the event that some or all of the competitors in any category fail to reach an adequate standard the Judges may choose not to award some or all of the prizes.
17. All cups and other trophies are the property of the IW Hedgerow Group and must be returned to the competition organisers before the next Hedgelaying Competition or earlier if requested. Mainland competitors winning a trophy will be required to leave the trophy with the organisers and not take it away.
18. The competition is organised by IWHG on behalf of the IW Council and the IW Council provides public liability insurance for competitors and organisers on condition they comply with these conditions. No insurance for loss or damage to equipment or personal belongings is provided.
19. Competitors who, in the opinion of the Judges, fail to observe these Conditions may be instructed to quit the competition and/or leave the site.
